

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear attempt to influence the outcome of the presidential election. Elections should be decided on merit. Big Media's blatant manipulating of the facts is reprehensible.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. I am opposed to censorship, but airing of "Stolen Honor" should be stopped unless Sinclair airs a pro Kerry program immediately following.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
